

TRADITIONAL NEW YEAR SEMINAR

Gothenburg • January 6–9, 2011 • Shihan Ulf Evenås, 7 dan

This will be the 20th time that the Gothenburg Aikido Club has organized the International New Year Seminar. The event is meant to follow the tradition of O-Sensei: To practice when it is the coldest time of the year, and to start the new year in accordance with the Japanese tradition of "Kagamibiraki," to open up the new year. It is also a time when people from many dojos and countries comes together to meet old friends, to make new friends, and to practice Aikido.

The seminar is open to everybody regardless rank and style. During the four days we will be training Traditional Aikido, Takemusu Aikido, including Taijutsu, Ken and Jo, in the spirit of Morihiro Saito Shihan.

On Saturday evening there will be a celebration, but this year we will also celebrate the 20 year anniversary of the seminar.

FEES SEK 700 (€ 80). Two days SEK 500 (€ 60). Payment before first training. Party: SEK 125 (€15).

THE GOTHENBURG AIKIDO CLUB Gothenburg Aikido Club started as a small group of enthusiasts in the end of the 1960ies, practicing in different places, under the leadership of Carl Hansson. In 1969 the group became more organized and that same year it began with Iwama Takemusu Aikido, introduced by Takeji Tomita Sensei. With more than 40 years of experience in Takemusu Aikido, the club is the oldest existing Iwama "Style" Dojo outside Japan and one of the biggest Aikido dojos in Scandinavia.

ULF EVENÅS hold the rank of 7 dan Aikikai and Aikikai Shihan. He was also awarded 7 Dan and full certification in Bukiwaza (5th level) by Morihiro Saito Sensei, who also appointed Ulf a Shihan and his personal representative.

Ulf started Aikido in 1968 and Takemusu Aikido in 1969. He went to Iwama to study under Morihiro Saito Sensei in 1973 for half a year, and went back for a longer stay in 1977. From 1981 until 2002, Ulf has at least once a year, trained under Morihiro Saito Sensei, in Iwama or on seminars. Ulf is the chief instructor of the Gothenburg Aikido Club and continues to spread Aikido by teaching seminars worldwide.
